The use of information technologies by the Melitopol City Council in the fight against COVID-19

Strategy for using IT products in the fight against covid -19

1. Informing the population and fight against fake

2. Assistance to the population

3. Helping businesses

4. Working with the authorities of the municipality

1. Informing the population and fight against fake

1. Informing the population and fight against fake

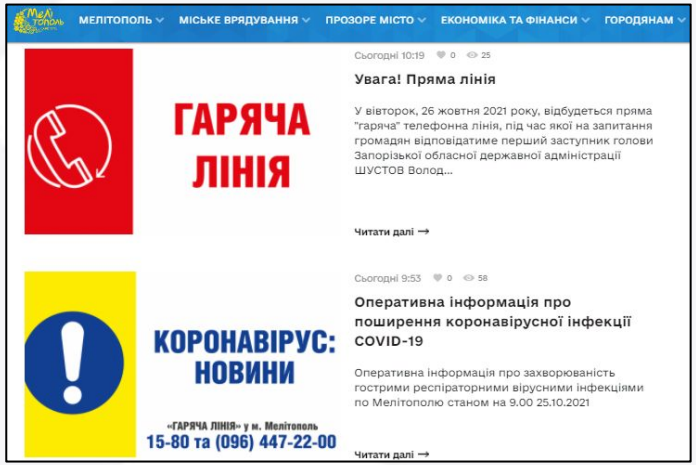

Establishment of a municipal call center for COVID - 19

1. Relieved stress in society
2. Simple technical solution
3. Fast deployment
4. High interaction efficiency

1. Informing the population and fight against fake

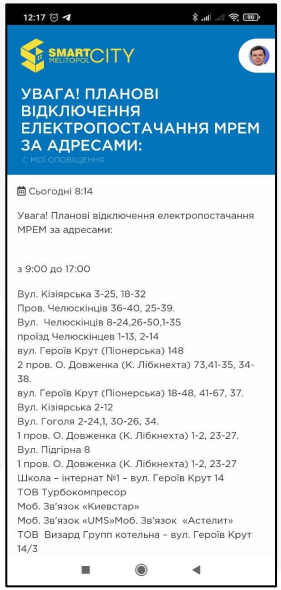

Informing the population on miniature sites

1. Publication of disease statistics
2. Publishing guidelines and tips
3. Fighting fakes

1. Informing the population and fight against fake

City Mobile App - Push Notifications

1. Street closure notifications to avoid crowds
2. Utility shutdown and repair notifications

2. Assistance to the population

2. Assistance to the population

City Mobile App - Medical section

1. Appointment to a doctor
2. Direct telephones of family doctors

2. Assistance to the population

City Mobile App - Social Services Assistant

1. Reducing the burden on social workers
2. The ability to work out different options for the format of social services

2. Assistance to the population

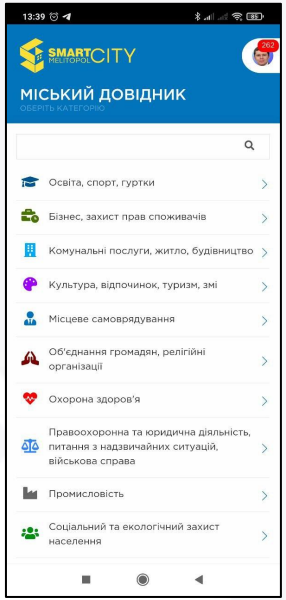

City Mobile App - Transport timetable

1. Getting rid of the crowds at bus stops
2. Reducing the stay of people on the street waiting for transport

2. Assistance to the population

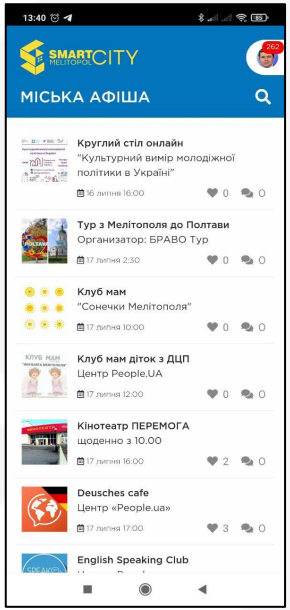

City Mobile App - City directory

1. Communication with government organizations
2. Communication with industrial enterprises

2. Assistance to the population

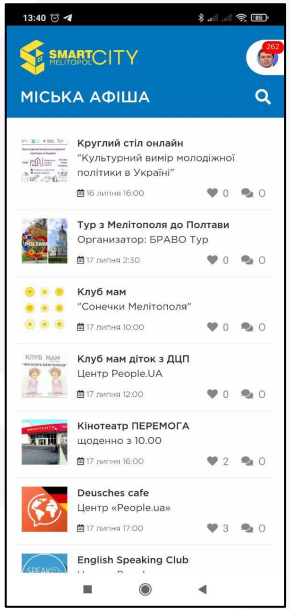

City Mobile App - City poster

1. Event announcements, including online
2. Activities so that people do not feel isolated at home

2. Assistance to the population

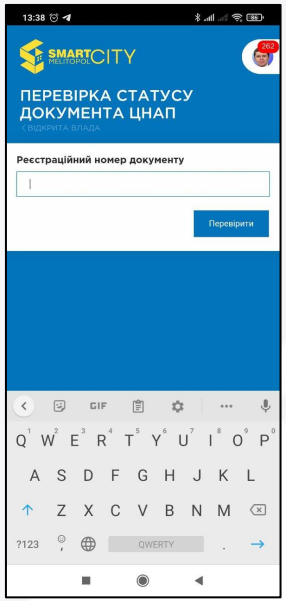

City Mobile App - City poster

1. Event announcements, including online
2. Activities so that people do not feel isolated at home

2. Assistance to the population

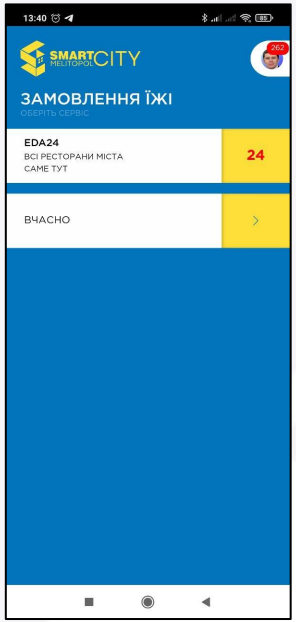

City Mobile App - Document readiness check

3. Helping businesses

3. Helping businesses

City Mobile App - Online food ordering

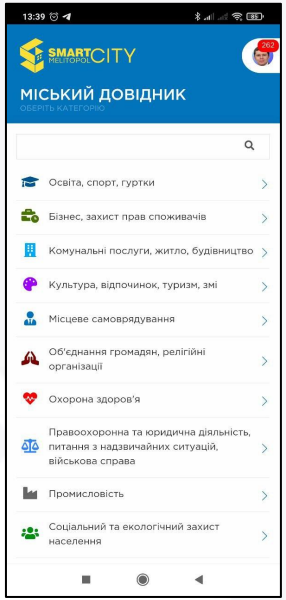

3. Helping businesses

City Mobile App - Taxi call

3. Helping businesses

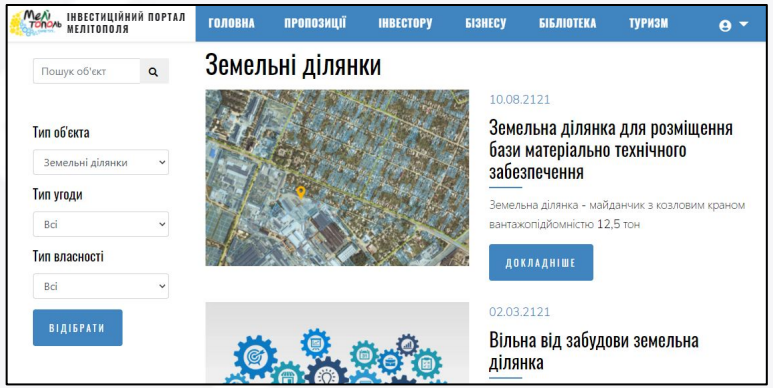

City Mobile App - City directory

1. Contacts of companies providing services
2. Communication with industrial enterprises

3. Helping businesses

City investment portal

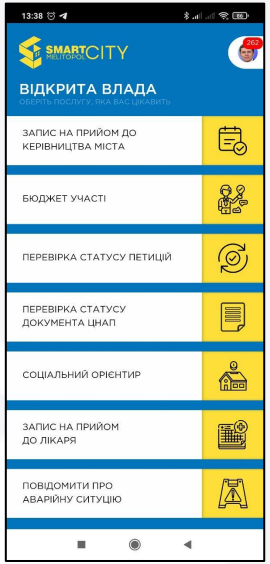

1. Placement of data on investment objects
2. Placement of data on goods and services
3. Posting data on trainings and meetings for investors

4. Working with the authorities of the municipality

4. Working with the authorities of the municipality

City Mobile App - Open municipality

1. Appointment to the city administration
2. Local petitions
3. Accidents and work with the dispatch center

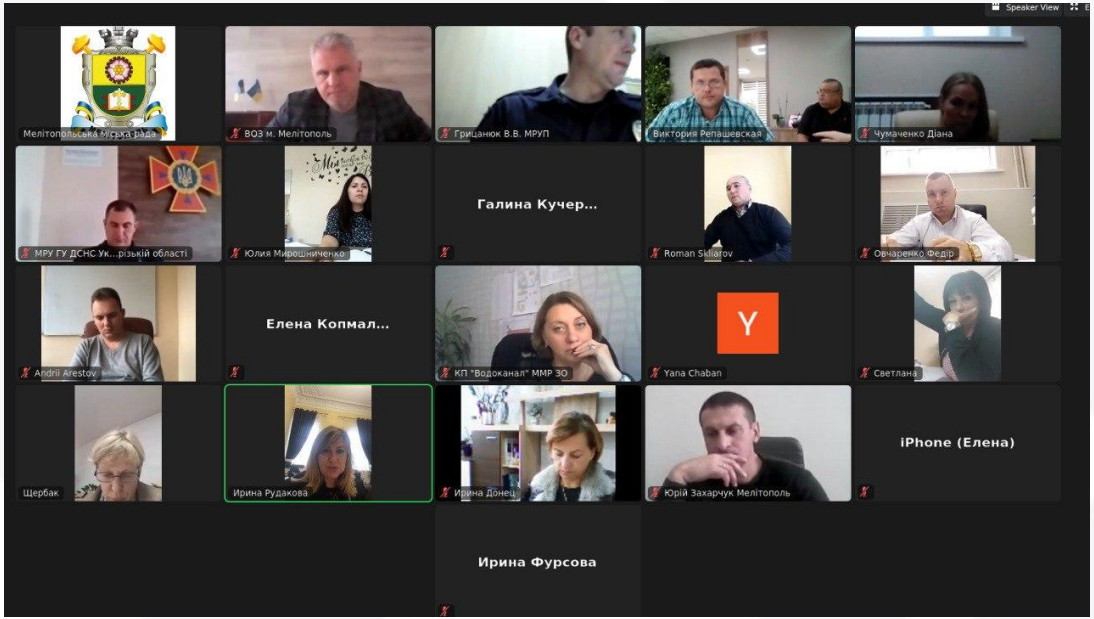

4. Working with the authorities of the municipality

City council meetings online

4. Working with the authorities of the municipality

Conducting meetings online

4. Working with the authorities of the municipality

Organization of remote workplaces

The use of information technologies by the Melitopol City Council in the fight against COVID-19

